Adaptive Leadership:

Leading Schools in the face of complexity and change is an intensive two day programme organised by the School of Education, Trinity College Dublin in association with Cambridge Leadership Associates.

This highly interactive workshop teaches participants how to apply the Adaptive Leadership framework to current leadership challenges facing schools.

Utilising a proven methodology, including presentation, participant interaction, exercises and lecture, the programme provides an opportunity for leaders in Irish education to grow their personal leadership skills and learn how to effectively diagnose and intervene in the systems they manage.

Adaptive Leadership is a framework that has been developed and honed by CLA over the last 30 years to help organisations adapt and thrive in complex and challenging times.

Cost to Participant: € 240

[This includes dinner in The Commons, Trinity College on Monday 22nd March]

Presenter: Marty Linsky

Marty Linsky is co-Founder of Cambridge Leadership Associates, and has had extensive experience as a consultant, facilitator, teacher and trainer in leadership with a wide range of public and private sector clients in the US and abroad. He is a prolific author; his newest book, The Practice of Adaptive Leadership – Tools and Tactics for Changing Your Organization and the World, co-authored with Dr. Ronald Heifetz and Alexander Grashow, was published in May by Harvard Business Press. He also authored best selling Leadership on the Line with Dr. Ronald Heifetz.

Marty is also a full-time faculty member at the Harvard Kennedy School where he has been since 1979, except for three years in the early 1990s when he served as Chief Secretary and Counsel to the Massachusetts Governor. At Harvard, he teaches about leadership, press, politics, legislatures, and public management.
He has been faculty chair of several of the school's executive programs on leadership and public management, both here and abroad.

A graduate of Williams College and Harvard Law School, he has been a journalist, lawyer and politician. Marty is married and the father of three children. For relaxation he runs (nine marathons, but no more), works out, enjoys good beer and all Mexican food (a reward for the running and working out) and collects baseball cards (over 25,000 of them).
