Getting to know Catherine McAuley

On Saturday April 25th, a symposium on the spirituality of Catherine McAuley was held by the Mercy Sisters in the Iortas Centre in Castleblayney.

Sr. Sheila Carney spoke about Catherine's Call and Integrated Spirituality and Sr. Cáitlín Coneeley explored Catherine as Enabler.

Respondents were Sr. Bonnie Brennan, Sr. Aine Barnes and Ms. Mary English gave a presentation on the ways in which Catherine's spirit informs the daily life of her School.

The new C.D. of Catherine's letters, "Your Ever Affectionate M.C. McAuley", was launched at the Symposium, and all participants - Sisters of Mercy, Mercy Associates, Teachers and our CEIST representatives, Ned Prendergast, Lloyd Bracken and Margaret Farrell all left Castleblayney with the sense of having deepened their friendship with a very special woman.

A delightfully human, affectionate woman, a compassionate, persistent, servant of the poor and neglected; an astute businesswoman; and an unpretentious humorous friend.

Presentation and Mercy Educational Projects

We highlighted on our website recently various Educational Projects from Presentation and Mercy Schools.

The Global Education Experience (G.E.E.) involves the experience of sending students and teachers out to other Presentation schools in the 'Third World'.

St. Joseph's Secondary School, Navan went on an educational trip to Zambia and met their Mercy connection.

Young Social Innovators 2009

The Young Social Innovators Showcase for 2009 takes place in the RDS on Wednesday 6th May. We send best wishes to all of the 33 CEIST schools which will be represented there by 92 projects.

The participation of so many CEIST schools in the Young Social Innovators is wonderful testimony to their commitment to addressing issues of justice in our world today, and to their determination to work towards improving the lives of others, both in our local communities and in the wider world.

The work involved in undertaking projects could not happen without the dedication of teachers and the enthusiasm of students.

Well done to all who participated in the Speakouts and good luck to those who will be present in the RDS.

Eastertide Resources

The CEIST Faith Development Team has put together some resources to help you celebrate Eastertide.

These resources aim to help teacher and student alike to journey further into Eastertide together and draw from its catechetical richness through prayer, meditation and story.

We hope you enjoy them.
