

CEIST

Catholic Education
An Irish Schools Trust

CEIST (Catholic Education, an Irish Schools' Trust) is the Trustee body responsible for the trusteeship of the secondary schools of five religious congregations-the Daughters of Charity, the Presentation Sisters, the Sisters of the Christian Retreat, the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart and the Sisters of Mercy. The Trust provides a moral and legal trustee framework, dedicated to developing and sustaining the vibrant network of CEIST schools, and to continuing the growth and development of Catholic post-primary education in Ireland.

The CEIST Board of Directors invites applications for the following position:

Faith Leadership and Governance Co-Ordinator

Applicants should have a proven record of delivery at senior leadership level within the Irish Post Primary sector; demonstrable experience in the planning, preparation and delivery of CPD; excellent knowledge of school governance and an ability to engage purposefully and supportively with school communities.

He/she will be a person of faith with a proven commitment to the provision and development of Catholic Education.

The full job description is available on the CEIST website www.ceist.ie

Please forward CV and letter of application to recruitment@ceist.ie no later than Friday 30th July 2021.

Shortlisting may apply.

CEIST is an equal opportunities employer.
